SECTION F: Comprehension*Comprehension 1 (8 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 33 to 40.

Meet Bella, my beloved tabby and best friend. With a pair of big, green eyes that shine with curiosity, she has been a part of my family even before I was born. She is just like a big sister to me.

Unlike most cats, Bella eagerly joins my mother and me on our daily adventures at the park. There, she gleefully chases butterflies and observes birds in flight. Sometimes, we even play a ~~game~~ of hide-and-seek, with Bella hiding behind bushes and me pretending not to know her where she is. My mother often laughs at our silly behaviours.

When we are back home, Bella is still a bundle of energy. She will scamper around the house, leap onto furniture and play with her favourite feather toy. She is both active and affectionate. Right after dinner, when I take a break from my schoolwork, Bella will curl up on my lap and purr contentedly. ~~She will also do that when she feels that I am sad or lonely.~~

Taking care of Bella is a huge responsibility that requires commitment. However, I will not give it up for anything. I always ensure that her daily needs are provided for. Regular visits to the vet are also important to keep her healthy and happy.

Comprehension 2 (10 marks)*Read the following passage carefully and answer questions 41 to 48.

At eleven years old, Emily was known for her adventurous spirit. She had a talent for solving mysteries, inspired by her love for detective stories. One Sunday morning, ~~Emily was taking a stroll through the marketplace where she noticed some villagers gathering around someone. It was Mrs. Jenkins, the popular town baker.~~ She was in tears. Listening intently to the murmurs among the crowd, Emily learned that Mrs. Jenkins's prized necklace, a family treasure with ~~sparkling~~ jewels, had gone missing.

Feeling sorry for Mrs. Jenkins, Emily volunteered to help find the missing necklace. After hours of ~~questioning the villagers, getting the description of the necklace from Mrs. Jenkins and searching the area for clues,~~ Emily stumbled upon a hidden area behind a stack of hay bales. There, nestled among the hay, was Mrs. Jenkins's missing necklace, glinting in the dim light.

10

Just as Emily was about to retrieve the necklace, she heard a rustling sound behind her. Whirling around, she came face to face with a bright-eyed raccoon which was about to pounce on the necklace. It was only then that Emily realised that the raccoon was the one who had hidden the necklace which it might have mistaken for food.

15

Emily bravely stood her ground and blocked the raccoon from grabbing the necklace. After some time, sensing that it was fighting ~~a losing battle,~~ the raccoon gave ~~a sharp shout~~ before scampering away. Emily then picked up the necklace and returned it to Mrs. Jenkins. Emily's pride swelled as ~~the villagers gathered to celebrate its safe return.~~ Her determination and keen observation had once again awed the villagers.
