Section E: Comprehension (Open-ended) (10 marks)

Read this passage and answer questions 21 to 26.

Shiloh has rolled around in mud and deer droppings again. Dara and Becky, my neighbours, are already in their swimsuits to give my dog a bath. Once it starts shaking himself after getting wet, anyone within ten metres will need an umbrella. I start filling a huge tub with the garden hose. The very second water splashes out, I see Shiloh's tail disappear around the corner. Ma comes out with the kettle and pours it all into the tub to bring up the temperature of the water.

5

"Pull it out there in the sun, Marty so Shiloh won't get so cold," she tells me before she goes back in.

I walk to where Shiloh is hiding - under the staircase. Seeing me crawling to him, Shiloh scampers out from between the steps and races away.

10

"He can't come into the house until he is all clean," Ma always says, so into the house I went. I came out with the vacuum cleaner - the only noise Shiloh hates more than motorcycles. I don't even have to turn it on. Shiloh sees the nozzle coming towards him and he runs. The next thing happens so fast I almost miss it.

Becky is sitting in the pail when Shiloh jumps in. She blinks and wipes her eyes. Then she sees brown stuff on her arm. I have never heard such screeching. Becky tries to get out of the tub but Shiloh keeps turning round and round on top of her as Dara bent over with laughter. Right then the tub tips over and the dirty water splashes on Dara.

"Yaaagh!" Dara bellows.

Ma is out by now. She sighs. "Get the hose, Marty. This is sure a waste of water." Ma washes Becky's hair. I wash the dog and Dara Lynn scrubs herself twice just to make sure.

20

"You are a barrel of trouble," I say as I dry Shiloh off. And when I'm sure Ma and the girls can't hear, I tell him, "Most fun I've had since the school holidays began."
